NO. 3

Sweet Clover.

The Bokhara Seed Company, of Falmouth, Ky., has an advertisement in the Times that should interest our readers very much. Soil improvement should be the slogan of every farmer in Powell county, and there is nothing will improve the soil faster than sweet clover. It will grow on any kind of land, and can be sown in January and February without any preparation of soil whatever. Besides being a fine restorer of the soil sweet clover also makes a fine pasture for stock. Some has reported to us that stock would not eat sweet clover but we can contradict this argument for we sowed some last spring and horses devoured it greedily when let to it. It is much better for cattle though we never tried any cattle on it. We are going to sow more of it this year and sow it early so as to make sure of a stand. Once started sweet clover never dies unless broke up. Be sure if you are a farmer and order some of this seed from the Bokhara Seed Company and start to build up your land.

Green County in Trouble.

Many years ago Green county issued railroad bonds for the building of a railroad that didn't build. Since that time the various officials of the county have refused to pay anyone these bonds though the courts have decided against the county every time. An action has now been taken to compel the officials of the county to either make the levy and collect tax to pay on the bonds or put these officials in jail.

Wonder what has become of that clause of law that "a man shall not have something for nothing."

The overproduction of coal mined last year came in quite handy during the cold spell.

Home Nurseries.

Home Nurseries, of R. R. 2, Richmond, Ky., J. B. Adams proprietor, have an advertisement in this paper. Mr. Adams has a fine collection of trees ready for setting. His prices are about one-half what the fruit agents sell them for, and being grown in a neighboring county are adapted to our soil and climate much better than trees grown in another State. There are few farmers in this county that have enough fruit trees, and that should set out more this spring. The writer has 400 young trees, some just coming into bearing. One hundred of these trees we got last spring from Mr. Adams. We never had trees to do better. Every tree but one which was barked by rabbits or mice, lived, and did well, notwithstanding the unusual dry weather. In addition to the four hundred young trees, we have about 100 old trees, but this Spring we intend to set out no less than one hundred more trees, as we believe nothing will pay so well on this land as fruit trees. We hope to see others of the county do likewise and assure them they can find no better place to get their trees than from Mr. Adams at Richmond. Send him your orders.

Elements of Success.

Senator John Sharp Williams, a practical agriculturist, has handed out a few words of advice to the boys. "My word to the farm boy," he says, "would be that the three elements of success are industry, perseverance, intelligence. Industry without intelligence does not win; intelligence without industry does not win, and the two together must be coupled with perseverance, and to this must be added that degree of honesty in dealing with one's neighbors that makes friends for life."

An Important Bill.

One of the most important bills before the State Legislature is that introduced in the Senate Tuesday by Senator Newcomb of Louisville. The bill provides for the creation of a Public Service and Utility Commission, to have supervision over the operation of telephone, telegraph and express companies in Kentucky. It provides that the commission shall consist of three members, one from each of the Railroad districts, to be named by the Governor and approved by the Senate, and outlines the power and duty of the commission as follows:

"It shall have supervision of all the telephone, telegraph and express companies doing business in the State of Kentucky, and every such company shall, on or before September 1, each year, make and transmit to the commission at its office in Frankfort, under the oath of its president or manager, a true and full statement of the affairs of such company as existed on the first day of the preceding July.

The bill provides that "the rates, fares and charges demanded from the public by every express company, telephone and telegraph companies, shall be just and reasonable, and no discrimination shall be made by any such company in favor of any person, firm or corporation, or for or against any locality, and it shall be the duty of such companies to file with the commission a schedule of all their rates, fares and charges for all the service they render, and in the event of wishing to change the rates or charges, the same shall not be done or become effective until after such company has notified the commission in writing, giving their reasons therefor, and having received the expressed approval of the commission; provided that no telephone company doing business in the State of Kentucky shall charge a higher rate than the following:

For each telephone in a business house or office the highest rate of charge shall be, for a single or private line, unlimited service, $5 per month, or at the rate of $60 per year.

For a public line, unlimited service, $3 50 or at the rate of $42 per year.

For each telephone in a residence the highest rate of charge shall be, for a single or private line, unlimited service, $2 50 per month or at the rate of $30 per year.

For a public line, unlimited service, $1 50 per month, or at the rate of $18 per year.

For each extension desk telephone, the highest rate of charge shall not exceed 75 cents per month, or at the rate of $9 per year.

Said commission shall have the authority and power to fix and regulate all rates charged by telephone companies in this State to their subscribers on a reasonable basis, either long distance or local, and for single and public lines, except that the rates fixed by the commission shall not exceed those above, and said commission is clothed with the authority, whenever in their judgment the reasonable convenience of the patrons or any company is not served, to suggest certain improvements and institute such legal proceedings as are necessary to properly promote with improvements."

Redistricting Bill.

State Senator Welch, of the Congressional Redistricting Committee, has introduced a bill in the Legislature redistricting the State and his bill has the merit of disturbing the present boundaries as little as possible.

Leaving out Jefferson county, he has divided the other ten districts on a basis of 200,000 population. This leaves the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth and Tenth districts as they are.

Politically the bill will make the Eleventh and Eighth districts Republican and make the Third, Ninth and Tenth districts debatable.

Coldest Weather in 13 Years.

The coldest weather since 1899 was registered here Saturday morning when the thermometer dropped to 26 degrees below zero. It also stood 12 below Tuesday morning while every day was intensely cold up to yesterday afternoon when it turned warmer. In some parts of the county Saturday morning thermometers went as low down as 30 degrees below zero which was as cold as was in February, 1899 and that time was then considered to be the coldest weather ever witnessed in this part of Kentucky.

Government Whitewash.

Take one-half bushel of un-slacked lime, slack with warm water, cover it during the process to keep in the steam; strain the liquid through a fine sieve or strainer; add one peck of salt previously well dissolved in warm water, three pounds of ground rice boiled to a thin paste and stir in boiling hot; one-half pound powdered Spanish whiting and one pound glue which has been previously dissolved over a slow fire and let it stand for a few days, covered up from the dirt.

This whitewash should be put on hot. One pint of the mixture will cover a square yard, properly applied. Small brushes are best.

Robt. Blackburn, of Stanton, was injured in a railroad wreck near Louisville Tuesday. While his injuries are not fatal he will be laid up for some time. At the same time four trainmen were killed and about a score of passengers injured, some of them seriously, in a head-on collision a few miles out of Louisville when a C. & O. "dead" train and the Lexington accommodation train of the L. & N. came together. According to L. & N. officials the accident was due to a direct violation of operating rules on the part of the trainmen on the C. & O.

Jackson is advertising for bids on a telephone franchise without mentioning the charges for service. It seems to us that Jackson is trying to get what Louisville has and what the latter city has spent thousands of dollars trying to get rid of, and what Louisville would give still thousands more to rid itself of. Our sister city had better go a little slow and look forward before it steps so far.

When the Republicans took control of the State offices at Frankfort four years ago, they found $1,100,000.00 in the Treasury. When they went out of office the first of January they left the State $300,000.00 in debt.

Another reason why Baltimore was selected as the place to hold the National Democratic Convention may have been so Congressmen and Senators at Washington could attend and not lose so much time from their duties.

John Langley and Caleb Powers seem to be greatly disturbed because they are unable to run the the President. Bradley seems to have them downed when it comes to dishing out the Federal pie in all parts of this State.

A New York policeman wants to be relieved from paying alimony because he is "tired of supporting his wife's second husband." Some men are so unreasonable.

Laboring under a New Year resolution is like carrying a pane of glass. One slip and it's all off. And the way is mighty slippery these days.

The government has paid eight hundred and fifty million dollars in two years playing the game of trust busting, and has not busted anything yet

John Burroughs says Mr. Roosevelt would not ignore his country's call. He has his ear to the ground to catch its earliest whisper.

It is announced that the nations are making an effort to codify the rules of war. The first rule is to jump on the weaker nations.

Yes, the Democratic National Convention will meet in Baltimore June 25th and name the next President of the United States.

The Republican Convention will meet in Chicago June 18th and name a skillful pilot for a salt river trip.

Mr. Taft will try his best to save Col. Roosevelt from the embarrassment of refusing a nomination.

This thing of trying to make re-Presidents out of ex-Presidents gets one's nerves

An Editor in Trouble.

An exchange is conducting a "twenty years ago" column and came awfully near getting into a bad scrape the other day. A prominent "young" lady called up the office and said that twenty years before quite an elaborate surprise party was given in her honor on her eighteenth birthday and the paper printed a full account of the interesting event. But she did hope to goodness that if they reprinted the item in its "twenty year column" it would kindly omit reference to which birthday it was. Thus it will be seen that the pathway of journalism is ever strewn with dangerous and puzzling predicaments.

NOTES from MEADOWBROOK FARM

Oats make an excellent ration for laying hens.

Late in the fall is a good time to hatch spring chicks in some sections.

Shorts are more economical feed for sows and growing pigs than corn.

The deepest mudhole and steepest hill measure the real distance to market.

Turkeys will soon become weak and subject to disease where inbreeding is practiced.

Where there is plenty of skimmed milk, beef scraps for hens need not be bought.

When the hogs fail to gain at least a pound a day it is time to say good by to them.

Get your cows started right for the coming cold weather and they will do well all winter.

Build a warm, dry and otherwise comfortable room for the calves for the cold weather.

When selecting a cow for the dairy look and see if the eye of the animal is large and full.

This is the time of the year when dairy cattle require better care and more liberal feeding.

To thoroughly clean milk utensils they first should be rinsed with cold water, to remove all particles of milk.

The successful feeding of lambs depends largely on their being offered great variety of food while in the yards.

Peach trees can be planted any time between last and first frost; the earlier in the winter they are planted the better.

Keep all the rotten fruit well cleaned up around the orchard, as these constitute the winter quarters of numerous orchard pests.

If all of the garden space is to grow profitable crops, no large trees must stand closer than thirty to fifty feet from the garden fence.

The calf that is expected to develop into a strong and profitable cow should be given all the chance possible during its early period of growth.

The best results are usually obtained from the work that is systematized and most carefully planned. This is not always the hardest work on the farm.

The best way to stop a hog from eating chickens is to put it on the market as soon as possible, since it will soon lead other hogs into the bad habit.

The best milking pail is the one so constructed that it will reduce to a minimum the amount of dirt falling into the milk during the process of milking.

An old horseman says that the chief cause of colic in horses, or the cause of the largest per cent. of these cases, is brought through long abstinence from water.

Do not neglect to secure a good supply of fine dust for the fowls during the coming winter, while the ground is yet dry and there is dust in the road.

There is much difference in the individuality of cows and their powers to produce milk as there is in men and their powers to perform certain kinds of work.

The profit in a cow comes from the extra amount of milk she will yield over what she ordinarily gives on common pasture or the coarse feeds usually given her.

The poultry raiser who notes his flock carefully, taking into account what they are doing, and capable of doing, ought to know more how to feed and what to feed, than anyone advising at long range.

SPOUT SPRING.

Frank Margison spent Sunday with his parents.

A. J. Larison is moving to Milt Crow's place.

George Curtis has moved to the Elizabeth Burgher farm.

Margison & McKinney have moved their stock of goods from the Christopher building to the Mosonic property.

Messrs. T. S., Moses and Shelt McKinney and R. A. Kirby sold their crops of tobacco at Winchester. Average price about 5 1/2 cents.

Winter is here and the little flowers cover their heads far from our view waiting for the gentle sunshine and rain of Spring to awake them; and so have some people.
